

CONTENTS
"Ethos" 9:1996 No. 3-4 (35-36)

THE CLASSICAL ROOTS OF MODERN CULTURE

From the Editors – The Continuity of Tradition and the Open Character of History	7
John Paul II – Both Human and Christian (Fragment of an Address to the Participants in the Conference "«Go thy way, and thou do likewise». From Hippocrates to the Good Samaritan", Rome 1995)	13
John Paul II – A Word to the Poles (Castel Gandolfo, September 1, 1996).	16
Tadeusz Styczeń, SDS – A Letter of an Ethicist to the President, Deputies of the Parliament and Senators of the Republic of Poland	17

THE HUMAN BEING – A CLASSICAL CONCEPT

Jean-Marie Meyer – Antigone (transl. by P. Mikulska).	23
Georges Cottier, OP – Freedom and Truth (transl. by Fr W. Zuziak).	31
Tadeusz Styczeń, SDS – Freedom and the Law: For or Against Life? An Ethicist Facing the "Ineffectiveness" of Truth	37
Stanisław Grygiel – Being Precedes Essence, Or the Fear of the Gift	54

ROOTEDNESS IN CLASSICALITY

Władysław Tatarkiewicz – The Four Senses of Classicality.	67
Fr Marian Kurdziałek – The Role Played by Philosophy in Various Historical Epochs	81
Giovanni Reale – On Ancient Philosophy (transl. by J. Merecki SDS).	106
Andrzej Bronk, SVD, Stanisław Majdański – The Classicality of Philosophy (In the Understanding of the Lublin School)	129
Zbigniew Chłap – From Hippocrates to the Good Samaritan. Remarks on the Ethics of Physicians	145

THE UNIVERSALITY OF THE GOSPEL

Fr Jerzy Bajda – Culture Saved by the Gospel.	165
Jacek Salij, OP – The Fragility of the Everlasting Tradition	175
Małgorzata Borkowska, OSB – The Enrooted in Eternity	187
Paweł Placyd Ogórek, OCD – Tomasz Merton: On the Road of the Twentieth-Century Man towards God	192
Fr Józef Krukowski – "Invocatio Dei" in the Constitutions of Modern Democratic States. A Reflection on the Debate about the Draft of the Constitution of the Republic of Poland.	202
Roman Jusiak, OFM – The Promotion of the Laity as an Opportunity for the Church in Poland.	215

THE CLASSICAL ANCESTRY OF ART

Jadwiga Żylińska – "Greek is the Most Wonderful Language"	229
Fr Jan Sochoń – The Classical Poet is Alive! An Attempt at a Manifesto	238
Anna Papierkowska – Polish Tombs of Children from the Renaissance	248

INTERVIEWS OF THE "ETHOS"

Classical Philosophy is a Metaphysical Philosophy. An interview with Professor Stefan Świeżawski by Fr Jarosław Merecki	253
---	-----

THINKING ABOUT FATHERLAND ...

Andrzej Madej, OMI – The Polish Triptych	261
--	-----

REPORTAGE

Józef Suchocki – The Miracle of the Open Door. The Suwałki – Wilno Pilgrimage 96 .	263
--	-----

NOTES AND REVIEWS

Lechosław Lameński – Painting and Literature: The Common Place in History (Review of Czas i wyobraźnia. Studia nad plastyczną i literacką interpretacją dziejów [Time and Imagination. Studies on the Plastic and Literary Interpretation of History], ed. by M. Kitowska-Łysiak and E. Wolicka, Lublin 1995, pp. 335)	271
Ireneusz Ziemiński – The Fatalistic Theory of the Jansenists (Review of Leszek Kołakowski's Bóg nam nic nie jest dłużny. Krótka uwaga o religii Pascala i o duchu jansenizmu [God Owes us Nothing. A Short Comment on the Religion of Pascal and on the Spirit of Jansenism], transl. by I. Kania, Kraków 1994, pp. 284)	275
Jan F. Jacko – Sophocles's Antigone and Mądzik's "Theatre of Shadows" in the Juliusz Osterwa Theatre in Lublin	279
Robert E. Lauder – The Cinema of God's Grace. On the Films by Robert Brosson (transl. Beata Górka)	282

REPORTS

Fr Andrzej Czaja – Congar: A Theologian Opening a New Age of the Church (Report from a theological symposium at the Catholic University of Lublin, Lublin, May 20, 1996)	285
--	-----

THE PONTIFICATE IN THE EYES OF THE WORLD

Musa Konopacki – A Letter of a Moslem Brother from the Popes Fatherland.	289
---	-----

THROUGH THE PRISM OF THE "ETHOS"

Wojciech Chudy – The Disinterested Need for Beauty	291
--	-----

BIBLIOGRAPHY

The Christian Roots of Europe. The Addresses of John Paul II (1978-1996) (Maria Filipiak)	293
Notes about Authors	301
Summary	309